Message from the Rector

'Peace and co-prosperity' represent humanity's common desire and the ideal of our age. And yet, modern society remains marred by outbursts of conflicts arising from ideological exclusion and hegemonic assaults. Chasms between the left and right, and between the conservative and progressive have produced chronic conflicts deeply embedded in our societies. Moreover the confrontation psyche, clashes of civilizations, and the emergence of anarchic mass have increasingly characterized the challenges that modern society faces today.

Will such unfortunate historical outcomes reproduce themselves in the 21st Century? Is the 'Post Ideology' a new era in which we can eventually surmount conflicts and confrontations and realize instead the long cherished human values of peace and co-prosperity?

These are some of the questions to be addressed at the global dialogue 'After Ideology: The 21st Century Talks', hosted by the Global Academy for Neo-Renaissance of Kyung Hee University, in celebration of the 24th Anniversary of the UN International Day of Peace and the inauguration of the Academy.

In the context of the limits of modern ideology, prevalent prejudice, and their historical resultants, the dialogue seeks to explore the possibilities of a future civilization anchored on peace and co-prosperity. It will do so from the perspective of 'open humanity', 'new cultural society', and 'alternative politics'.

I invite you to celebrate together the opening of the Global Academy for Neo-Renaissance and share your thoughts on the meaning of a 'Post Ideology' era.

November 2005

*Rector, Global Academy for Neo-Renaissance
